Burke will continue to be head coach James Conway's right hand man under the direction of general manager Jim Popp. "We are thrilled to secure Mr. Burke's services for at least the next five years," Popp said in a press release. "Having Jeff and our assistant coaches back on board with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats is exciting for our organization." Conway said in the release that he was happy to have the "services of someone who is as well versed, if not better, than I am in the game we play." "I'm extremely happy to be back with the Tiger-Cats to continue to teach and coach the way that I learned from the great defensive coordinators and defensive players who coached the game before me." Burke first joined the Tiger-Cats in 2007 as a linebackers coach before moving to the defensive coordinator and special teams coordinator roles in 2011. Conway was named the Tiger-Cats head coach prior to the 2012 season, and Burke moved with him. Burke also coached NFL linebackers such as Sheldon Brown and George Andrieus. Hamilton reached the Grey Cup last season after a 10-8 finish, losing to Calgary 33-20 in the Eastern semi-final game.Loss of the CDO translational enhancer in HNF-1alpha-associated kidney diseases results in malformation of the glomerulus.
